

"Little Women" IsVery Nicely Cast

Louisa M. Alcott's play "Little Women" which is going on at the Community Playhouse September 7, 8 and 9 is played mostly by persons who have distinguished themselves in local theatricals. "Little Women" has an all star cast so to speak.

Jo is played by Dorothy Foulger, who first distinguished herself at the Forest Theatre as an Indian girl in "God of Gods." This summer she directed "The Ivory Door." Mrs. Foulger has an unusually lovely speaking voice and is an experienced actress.

Meg is taken by Mary Wright who has important in Stanford theatricals. Connie Schumann who will be remembered as the lovely spoiled daughter of Gildan Bloodgood in "The Streets of New York" is playing Beth.

Amy is Peggy Converse memorable in many plays here. "The Spider," "Dolla House" and more recently, "Paris Bound."

Jack Gruber has played crooks, police sergeants, gentlemen gangster and now he is cast as Mr. Lawrence. George McMennamin, a talented comedian, comes from Monterey to take the part of Laurie. Lloyd Weir who had important parts in "The Ivory Door" and "The Merchant of Venice" is cast in the part of John Brooke.

Jane Matzke has an amusing part as the maid, Hannah. Mrs. March is Dorothy Ledyard. Mr. March is Byron Foulger who incidentally is also director. Paula Dougherty, of "Firebrand" fame, will play Aunt March.

Besides the evening performances on the 7th, 8th and 9th of September, there will be a matinee for the children Saturday.

Carmel Resident DiesAfter Brief Illness

William M. Graham, who made his home in Carmel for eighteen years, passed away on September 1st after an illness of but twenty-four hours. She was a sister of the late Mrs. J. L. Freeman, and an aunt of Helen Freeman and Mrs. Thomas S. Bell, of Pasadena and Carmel. Of late years, Miss Graham came here only to summer in her home on Palou street, spending the rest of the year in the southern part of the state.

Two Holiday FiresCause No Damage

Two fire sirens added to the noise of holiday traffic Labor Day. Both were brush fires causing no damage.

One fire was reported to be near the Serra Monument in the Carmel Woods but was actually outside the city limits. As is the proper procedure for such foreign fires Ranger Frank A. Moore was called. However the firemen went to his assistance.

The other fire was also brush which was put out in short order by the fire department.

Three Buses GoTo Monterey High

Three buses are needed to take Carmel and Carmel Highlands children to Monterey high school this year. Marshal Wernuth, the driver of one bus estimates that there are a hundred going over the hill to school this year. It hasn't been long since one bus was ample room for transportation.

Big Rattlesnakes InTher Thar Hills

Jack Eaton killed an eight button rattlesnake up San Jose canyon this week. He says that it was nothing and that he killed three there in the last month.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOROF MRS. MERCER

A group of Carmel women attended a luncheon given by Mrs. Roberta N. Lewis to honor Mrs. John Walter Mercer of New York who is stopping in Carmel. The guests were Mrs. John Walter Mercer, Mrs. George B. Jordan, Mrs. Stella Stafford Mather, Mrs. J. E. Abernethy and Mrs. William O'Donnell.

Catlin May Be NextLieutenant Governor

If Mayor John Catlin heeds the advice and requests of friends he may be the next lieutenant governor of the state of California.

Mr. Catlin has been approached by a large number of people, among them being those who keep their eyes to the political keyhole and they feel that the time is ripe for a man of Mr. Catlin's education and experience to try for this office.

As to Mr. Catlin's qualifications none can be better. He has been identified with public life in California practically during his whole life, learning the political ropes in San Francisco.

He has reached an age where he can look at a subject in a perfectly level-headed manner and see a question from all angles.

Mr. Catlin is now Carmel's efficient mayor and Carmel Sun believes he would make an efficient lieutenant governor as well.

Noel Coward PlayGets Many Laughs

A full house, or more specifically, a full gallery, nearly stopped the reading of "Design for Living" by laughter, Saturday night.

The audience roared with delight at Noel Coward's comedy read brilliantly by Carol Eberts Veazie at the Denny-Watrous Gallery.

Written solely to amuse, "Design for Living" is daring, without a moral or a message, in the whole play. The small talk reminds one of the breakfast scene in "Private Lives" another successful Coward comedy in which Mrs. Veazie played here last year.

Phil Nesbit ReporterOn David Lamon Case

Phil Nesbit, who has a "Richmond" level of journalism, has been reporting for the Chronicle on the David Lamon case in San Jose. Nesbit is known in Carmel as a clever artist. He made the first carved and decorated street signs here. He made caricature drawings for charity at the Carmel street fair. Nesbit recently had a one man show of his work, mostly water color, at the Denny-Watrous Gallery. He travels extensively. Some of his most amusing drawings were made in Tahiti.

Miss Sonya NoskowiakHas Fine Photographs

Miss Sonya Noskowiak shows the influence of her teacher, Edward Weston, upon her work which is on exhibition at the Denny-Watrous Gallery.

Miss Noskowiak has found art in simple things, such as vegetables, an old oak trunk, a collection of flasks, catching the beauty of things which the ordinary person never notices.

It is good to have people like Weston and his talented pupil to call attention to these things. However, much of the art in the common things is brought out only by the technique of these artists in photography.

Mrs. Stella MatherGives Garden Dinner

Last night Mrs. Stella Stafford Mather entertained at her Robles del Rio summer cottage. Dinner was served in the garden, followed by dancing.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. David Scripture, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ryland, Mr. and Mrs. George Seidneck, Mrs. Louise Fry, Mr. Herbert Heron, Mr. and Mrs. William Heathorn, Mrs. Vera Peck Mills, Miss Anita Doud, Mrs. Ross Sargent, Dr. Clinton Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Black, Dr. J. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Metz, Mrs. Adele Goodspeed and Dr. and Mrs. Harry R. Lushigan.

Ask for Re-MatchWith Local Scrapper

Carmel fight fans are asking for a re-match between Bob Dalton and Bud Naulty. The boys fought a red hot draw recently at the Presidio Bowl, that was a sure crowd-pleaser.

Holiday Crowd IsWell Behaved Here

All was law and order, if not peace and quiet in the village over Labor Day. Neither Chief of Police Gus Englund nor traffic officer Guth reported any traffic violations, although the streets have never been so crowded with cars.

The beach was so thickly covered with people that old timers were heard to resentfully say that you would think this is a resort town.

Hundreds of people from all over the state walked the sidewalks and looked at the "cute" little shops. The old-timer was heard to say that since this was probably the only time most of these people will ever be here there will be those who will always think that Carmel is always brilliant with sunshine.

Carmel has probably never been photographed so much as it was on Labor Day. Fifty photographers, belonging to a club in San Francisco were here with a camera apiece, shooting everything with cameras of every description. The Weston influence caused them to use many films on rocks and sand.

Presidio Boxing FansPlan Splendid Card

They're going to have another good time at the Presidio Boxing Bowl next Wednesday night with double main event, semi-final bout, both six rounds, and five preliminaries, with added wrestling match not forgetting the music by the 11th cavalry band.

The affairs are growing in popularity and the Carmel fans attend in hordes.

The double main event will feature Kid Frenchy, 135, vs. Bill Noovak, 135, and Jack Everett, 148, vs. Buck Anderson, 145.

The semi-final will be between Jack Burton, 158, and Dave Watkins, 154.

Colonel Leninger will be in charge. In the advertising columns of this issue may be found the names of those engaging in the preliminaries.

Jack Dalton will be one of the judges.

Miraculous Escape InCarmel Valley Wreck

Carmel wrecking crews were forced to use block and tackle from the highway workers to extricate E. R. Boist's machine last Monday evening. Louis Boist Jr., driving up the Valley alone the night before, was blinded by approaching lights and plunged over the bank above Los Laureles Outing Club, to end up against a barn far below. Save for bruises, he was uninjured.

Radiana Pazmor toSing Saturday Night

Once more there will be opportunity to hear the unusually beautiful song recital of Radiana Pazmor. Enthusiasm ran so high after the first concert of Miss Pazmor that the demand for another chance to hear the great contralto has been very insistent and so it is that on Saturday evening, September 9, Miss Pazmor sings again in the Denny-Watrous Gallery. Her program is of rare beauty:

Schubert:
Frühlingsglauben.
Lachen und Weinen.
Der Doppelgänger
Die Liebe
De Falla:
El piano moruno.
Jota
Asturiana
Beethoven—Six O Faithful Jonnie.
Bat, O Dear, What can the Matter Be.
Charles, Charles:
Warlock, As Ever I Saw.
Four Poems of Vertheine
Hahn—D'Be Prison
Poldowski—Impression Ausse.
Faure—Claire De Lune.
Debussy—Mandoline.

Carmel People MaySee Old Ironsides

Those who failed to get to San Francisco to see Old Ironsides on her previous visit will have a chance to see the famous old frigate which is due to be in Monterey harbor October 1, arriving in the early morning.

No visitors will be allowed aboard but since the first falls on a Sunday, it is likely that practically every person in Carmel will be able to see the historic Constitution.

Filipino ApprehendedUpon Return Here

The Filipino, Albert Gelasse, returned to the scene of his crime yesterday to find Chief of Police Gus Englund awaiting him with a warrant for his arrest.

Following the fist fight in the Pine Inn employees' quarters last week Philip de Jesus, one of the three Filipinos whom Gelasse attacked, swore out a warrant. Gelasse disappeared going to San Francisco. When he returned Englund arrested him at the Filipino Club on Monte Verde.

Gelasse put up fifty dollars cash bail and was to appear this morning at ten before Judge Wood to face charges.

Robert Fender, former publicity man for Del Monte well known in Carmel, and Galt Bell, who was official director for the Community Players here, are expected back this week-end from Hollywood to see the production of "Little Women" at the playhouse.

George Cary LetterAuthenticity Doubted

Members of George Cary's family came here this week to investigate reports that he had been heard from after six years absence. He disappeared as if by magic following a gun fight with Andrew Wardlow on the Molera ranch at the Big Sur in 1917.

Newspapers reported that an attorney in Salinas received a letter from Cary in which he asked if the warrant for his arrest was still effective or if he could return to join his wife and his daughter Mrs. Charles Vogel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vogel came here this week from San Luis Obispo to investigate these reports. Cary's people feel that the letter received by the Salinas man was not written by Cary but by some friend who was interested in the case.

Carmel Valley PioneerPasses Away Suddenly

Carmel folk are sympathizing with the bereaved ones in the death of Philip McDonald, Carmel Valley, who passed away suddenly at his home Saturday afternoon.

The deceased was nearly 60 years of age and had lived in Carmel Valley for 60 years. He was born in Wellington, Ontario, Canada.

Surviving are two sons, Robert MacDonald of Pacific Grove, and George MacDonald of Carmel Valley; three daughters, Mrs. Ed Hutton of Carmel Valley, Mrs. Frank Briggs of the Panama Canal Zone, and Miss Rhoda MacDonald of Salinas, and a nephew, Perry MacDonald of Carmel.

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. W. B. Haggerty, pastor of St. James' Episcopal church, and interment was made in Monterey cemetery.

Freeman mortuary had charge of the services.

Oak Worms Are HereAgain in Hordes

It is style again to wear small crawling worms on the coat lapels and collars. Seldom is anyone seen here nowadays without this decoration.

For, the oak worms are here again. The new crop so far are very small but they make up in voracity for what they lack in size.

Not only the people suffer from these insects, but the trees undoubtedly will some time lack strength to pick up their vitality again.

Mrs. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald and Mrs. Stella Stafford Mather, who planned to return to Carmel, have decided to remain at Robles del Rio for another month.

500 Carmelites MoveTo Indian Village

Bob Leidig, Carmel firechief, estimates that five hundred persons attended the firemen's picnic and barbecue at the Indian Village, Seventeen Mile Drive, Sunday.

The barbecue, managed by two Del Monte cooks, was delicious and nicely served. According to Mr. Leidig it was good old fashioned family picnic and everybody had a grand time.

Some of the kiddies who won prizes for game contests are Homer Levinson, obstacle race; Ruth Burnham, diving; Howard Levinson, wheel barrow race.

Ray De Yoe, Ben Franklin and G. H. Burnett assisted with the management of the picnic. Benny Wetzel was kept busy at the Bingo game. Bob Leidig had lots of fun supervising the children's play. The veterans' band furnished music for the occasion.

Kathleen Parlow Partof Piano Quartet

One of the most interesting and significant bits of musical news is that Kathigen Parlow, for long known as the unrivaled world's greatest woman violinist, has become the permanent violinist of Mr. Penha's piano quartet. With this now unparalleled combination of Miss Parlow and Messrs. Penha, Weiss and Linsley, a new name for the ensemble is being sought and word of the choice will be given next week.

Kathleen Parlow has won so many triumphs throughout Europe and the United States that space does not permit to rehearse them. In one year alone she had sixteen appearances with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and again and again has won triumphant ovations from all the world's greatest orchestras. When a violinist of such proportions joins forces with so great a cellist and superb master of ensemble playing as Michel Penha, and his two excellent colleague-artists, Weiss and Linsley, musical history is indeed being made.

Larger Crowd FillsCarmel for Holidays

Hotels were filled to overflowing, cottages were taken and almost every available spot in Carmel was taken by the crowd of guests who came to spend the holidays here.

Those who have kept in close touch with the comings and goings of visitors state that this Labor Day crowd was far in excess of any of recent years.

Real estate firms of Carmel report also a larger number of cottages taken for the month of September than usual. And Carmel continues to hum with activity.

Mandarin Room IsGrowing in Favor

F. J. Farrell and R. E. Burkholder, who recently opened up the Mandarin room in Ocean View hotel report large crowds each night and they are much pleased with the favor their restaurant has found among the peninsula folk.

The young men have placed small tables along the walls of the room, which leaves ample dancing space, and music is provided by Angelo Chappell and his band.

Delicious Chinese food is served to the guests, provided by W. C. Wu, of the Ocean View hotel. Ocean View hotel is on cannery row and very easily located.

Speeder Kills Petof Turano Family

The pet dog, Toby, of the Turanos on Del Monte avenue was run down by a speeder and killed. Toby had hosts of friends for whom he performed his tricks when they stopped at the market.

Mr. Turano plans to file suit against the truck owners.

Mrs. Talulah Elston and her daughters have returned to Carmel after a long absence in time for Jane Elston to resume study at Monterey High School.

Children Delighted toReturn to School

The three hundred and twenty-five children who enrolled at Sunset school Tuesday seemed glad to be back according to O. W. Bardarson, principal.

Probably because of Monday's being a holiday the total of four hundred expected to enroll has not been reached. The number has made a definite increase every year and has doubled in the past four years.

A change has been made to the departmental system for the three upper grades, with an extra teacher, Miss Sara Reinhardt, furnished by the county without extra expense to this district to make the system possible. The sixth, seventh and eighth grades will be run as our high school with the teachers giving instruction in the subjects in which they have specialized.

Each teacher is responsible for the supervised study and recitation of certain subjects. Miss Anna Marie Baer has the social subjects, including history, geography, etc., Mrs. Frances Johnson, arithmetic and Mr. R. J. Gale languages and reading.

Mrs. Reinhardt, the teacher furnished by the county, will have classes in reading, writing, spelling and arithmetic, hygiene and physical education.

Miss Althea Kendall will take the overflow class, made up of pupils from too-large classes.

Mr. Bardarson is well pleased with the way the cafeteria is run by Miss Blanche Heninger.

"Another Language"At Carmel Theatre

Helen Hayes and Robert Montgomery are co-starred in "Another Language" filmed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The picture runs for more than a year on Broadway. The picture will be shown at the Carmel Theatre next Sunday and Monday.

As a play, "Another Language" proved to be the most popular comedy-drama to reach Broadway in several years. Its story concerns the oppressive effect of a middle-class family upon the happiness of a young girl who marries into it, a stranger to the customs of the household. Edward H. Griffith, who directed the screen version is noted for such successes as "Holiday," "Rebound" and "The Animal Kingdom."

Miss Hayes as Stella, the young bride who is more interested in sculpture than in family dinners, has a role strikingly different from her recent hit portrayals in "The White Sister" and "A Farewell to Arms." Montgomery, who comes to this picture direct from his success in "When Ladies Meet" plays the young husband who is unable to shake off the influence of his selfishly-adoring mother.

The difficult mother role is played by Louise Closser Hale. This characterization provides motivation for the plot and shows the domination of a well-intending mother-in-law who actually is the young wife's rival in her hold upon the son.

John Beal, who scored in the juvenile role of Jerry in the original stage presentation, repeats this brilliant performance in the picture. He is cast as the impulsive nephew who rebels against family tyranny and complicates matters by falling madly in love with his young Aunt Stella. Other members of the stage cast who repeat their roles in the photoplay version of "Another Language" are Margaret Hamilton, Irene Cattell and Hal Dawson. The role of the father is filled by Henry Travers, whose father characterization in "Reunion in Vienna" was widely acclaimed. Prominent parts are also played by Willard Robertson, Minor Watson and Mabel Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wishart of San Francisco visited over the holiday with the former's brother, George Wishart, and family of Carmel.

AGNES WILLISTON VISITING IN EAST

Miss Agnes Williston has recently been heard from in Boston and she reports that she expects to be in the East until perhaps the first of October. She is staying with friends and family in Boston and New York.

CALIFORNIA NEWS REVIEW

While departments of the State government have been trying to adjust their finances so they will not have to dismiss employees, records of the personnel division showed the lay-offs to total 667.

Despite failure of the Legislature at recent sessions to enact laws for control of truck transportation, the Railroad Commission announced it will press to its fullest authority its stand against "wildcat trucking."

City Attorney Shepard of Selma is preparing a resolution asking the Federal government for financial assistance for the construction of a municipal water distribution system, the estimated cost of which will be $106,042.

Building figures in Long Beach for the year passed the $5,000,000 total recently, with a compilation showing $5,014,325, as compared to $2,093,745 last year. August figures of $524,435 include $165,000 in new construction in addition to earthquake rehabilitation.

The California Railroad Commission flatly declared it did not propose to be "stampeded" into granting blanket increases in rates to utilities joining the NRA and seeking at the same time to place a burden of higher labor and other costs on consumers.

Interstate importance is lent the annual State convention of the California Real Estate Association, to be held at Riverside, October 4-7, through invitations extended by State President Hayden F. Jones to delegates and speakers from Arizona, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington and New Mexico.

Minimum prices fixed in codes under the California Recovery Act must take into consideration the consumer as well as the industry, and can not be so high as to result in excess profits to the trade. This is the ruling made public by Corporation Commissioner Edwin M. Daugherty, administrator of the CRA.

The state board of equalization has announced that requests of local governments to exceed the 5 per cent budget increase limitation set forth in the Riley-Stewart tax plan will be denied except in "very limited instances." That is taken as meaning that most of the 700 California school districts seeking permission to boost budgets more than 5 per cent will be turned down.

Approximately 600 employees in the Fresno city school system, whose existing contracts provide salaries 20 per cent below normal scales, resumed duties with 10 per cent of the reduction restored, O. S. Hubbard, city superintendent of schools, has announced. The salary increase, which applied to teacher, clerical employees and manual workers throughout the system increased pay rolls by approximately $117,000.

Claiming to be the only school in Orange county with its own water system, the Huntington Beach high school has just completed a $3000 water well and pumping plant and is waiting for permission from the county health department to turn the water into the system. A test from Los Angeles chemists revealed the water pure. A pressure tank with a 10,000-gallon capacity has been installed, and the water already has been used on the grounds.

Southern California's Civilian Conservation Corps of 5000 forest workers is to be maintained for another six months with the addition of forty-one winter camp sites. Col. Charles E. Hilton, commanding officer of Fort MacArthur and in control of C.C.C. camps in this district, was advised of the winter-maintenance plans by Gen. Malin Craig of San Francisco, commanding the Army's Ninth Corps Area.

Announcement of plans for a Pacific Coast professional football league of eight or ten clubs to operate from October through January was made in Los Angeles by Matt Gallagher, who will become secretary of the organization. Among the cities considered are Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Hollywood, San Diego, Oakland, Sacramento, Stockton, Fresno, Bakersfield, San Bernardino, Santa Barbara, San Jose and Long Beach.

An acute shortage of Councilmen in Glendale was seen for the future by astute political observers when Councilman Lee introduced a proposed ordinance before the Council which would limit speeches by Councilmen and citizens to three minutes. After hearing a first reading of the ordinance one observer opposed it on the ground that "all Councilmen got in Glendale now is $10 per meeting and the fun of hearing themselves talk. Limit the talk and you take away the fun of being a Councilman."

Burglars broke into a New Monterey store Sunday, cracked a safe and escaped with $3500. They have not been apprehended.

Pay increases of 10 per cent in the hourly base wage of all field and packing house employees were announced by six Santa Paula citrus companies as effective September 1.

There has been a great increase in the use of the public library facilities in recent weeks, it was declared by Los Angeles City Librarian Perry, and there is no doubt that this increase is directly due to the additional leisure given workers under NRA codes, he added.

"Sleeping sickness" is nothing new in California, and a few cases here and there do not indicate a spread of the disease which is now near-epidemic in St. Louis. This is the statement issued by the state department of public health. The disease first appeared in the state in the Spring of 1919, and since then there have been between fifty-six and 159 each year. It is highly fatal, the deaths running better than 50 per cent.

Roland M. Tognazzini has resigned as chief deputy and attorney for State Building and Loan Commissioner Richardson. The attorneyship was abolished by the recent Legislature and Thomas M. Gannon has been named to succeed Tognazzini as chief deputy. Tognazzini was a candidate for State Insurance Commissioner some months ago, before Governor Rolph decided to allow E. Forrest Mitchell to remain in office for a time.

Because he disliked the dust on the company street at Camp Kramer, C. C. C., near Porterville, where the tramping of many feet left clouds of it floating around, Thomas Duncan, company cobbler, turned himself into a one-man street-paving crew and abolished the nuisance. There was no surplus water with which to sprinkle the street down, so Duncan gathered quantities of the thick moss clinging to near-by rocks, supplemented that with gravel and made a serviceable pavement out of the mixture.

Local option in California will be the immediate object of dry forces. Dr. A. H. Briggs, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League in Northern California, told the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church in San Jose. The contest will be waged at the general state election a year hence, he said. Prohibition rights of counties and municipalities to determine for themselves how they would deal with the liquor traffic were taken away last November, Briggs charged. "To balance her budget, America is selling out the youth of the country," Briggs declared of current victories of wets.

A Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan exceeding $1,000,000 has been repaid in full and other debts, totaling more than $200,000, have been repaid by the Sun-Maid Raisin Growers' Association. William N. Keeler, general manager, reported recently at the Fresno annual meeting of the Sun-Maid advisory council. Settlement of the debts, he said, has placed Sun-Maid for the first time in its history, in a position to enter a new crop year free of debts incurred through borrowing on the previous year's crop.

State Director of Public Works Earl Lee Kelly announced recently that his department is working on a high-speed, job-making highway program estimated to launch projects at the rate of $1,000,000 a week until Christmas, providing work, directly or indirectly, for 50,000 men. The department announced bids recently on 53 projects, totaling approximately $4,280,000, to be opened on or about September 13. Kelly estimated that 16,000 men will be given work directly on the highway construction and that 34,000 others will gain employment through allied industries such as the manufacture of cement, asphalt and machinery.

Legal opinions just received by Mrs. Mabel E. Kinney, chief of the State Division of Industrial Welfare, from the Attorney-General and counsel for the National Recovery Act give assurance, the industrial welfare official said, that women past 50 years of age who work for less than the State's minimum wage will not be affected by NRA codes. The elderly women, some of whom are physically handicapped, are permitted to work under a special dispensation at present. The old out of such workers was said by the official to be a factory worker 52 years of age. Mrs. Kinney said that there are several hundred women working under the special rule. Some have been employed for more than thirty years and the morale of all of them, she said, is heightened by their ability to maintain their independence.

Assemblyman Craig of Brea, Field of Glendale and Latham of Alhambra, were appointed by Speaker Little as a committee to investigate oil drilling operations in State-owned tide lands of Huntington Beach. The committee report, to be submitted before November to Gov. Rolph, will contain recommendations for State royalties from oil drained from under public land. An Assembly resolution estimated the State is losing revenue of approximately $2000 a day in the Huntington Beach area.

Burglars broke into the Southern Pacific warehouse at Monterey Sunday, failed to get anything of value.

Setting the stage for expenditure of millions in California through national recovery legislation, northern counties recently outlined prospective public projects to be sponsored in the huge federal program. The plans presented at the Sacramento council meeting of the State Chamber of Commerce are to be whipped into concrete form as to specific information for inspection by the Federal administrator and advisory committee expected to be appointed for California. Heading the list of the larger projects was Sacramento's Silver Creek program calling for a municipally owned mountain water supply and power distribution costing in the neighborhood of $12,000,000. Next in magnitude was the proposed South Hampton bay harbor project in Solano County where for $1,500,000 the first unit can be constructed enabling thirteen northern counties to market produce now unsalable for lack of shipping facilities, the council was told. A resolution was adopted calling for the expenditure of the contemplated $16,000,000 for highways, half in the state highway system and half in county and joint state projects. Counties offered their proposals at the session of the industrial committee when Charles S. Knight of San Francisco, director of the state chamber's industrial department, presided. Among the projects listed by counties were: LASSEN—Water storage for irrigation in Honey Lake Valley and new sewage disposal plant for Susanville. SOLANO—Junior High school athletic field in addition to the harbor proposal. GLENN—County hospital, two schools in Orland and flood control for Stony Creek. TEHAMA—New high school and county hospital. PLACER—High school renovation for Roseville and new courthouse at Auburn. NEVADA—New sewage disposal system for Grass Valley. The industrial committee stressed importance of a proposed $250,000,000 Federal appropriation for self-liquidating mining operations.

An additional unemployment relief donation from the Federal government to California of $2,138,479 was approved by Federal Relief Administrator Hopkins. This amount was provided under provisions of the recently enacted law which allows Federal gifts equal to one-third of state, county and local expenditures for relief of suffering. The California grant is based upon reported public relief expenditures during the first quarter of the present year.

Esther Koehler left for her home in Hollywood last week after a week in Carmel visiting her father, Dr. R. A. Koehler. Miss Koehler is returning to U. C. L. A., where she is studying journalism.

Buy NOW! Before prices advance
Cost of all materials that go into gas appliances have gone up. Labor costs are also up. The prices have got to rise on gas heating appliances. So when you get heating appliances now.

SINCE the advent of Natural Gas into Northern California less than four years ago, 153,000 installations of Natural Gas heating appliances have been made.

Further, also out of ten heating appliances of all types purchased today by our customers, six for use with Natural Gas, the remainder being fuel oil.

Think of that! These thousands of people, men and women, who have had experience with many types of heating equipment and have registered an almost universal acceptance today for Natural Gas heat.

There are two outstanding reasons for this preference for Natural Gas heat—convenience and cleanliness.

Natural Gas is the convenient fuel to use. It is piped directly to the appliances where it is burned. It is easy to turn on, easy to control. And absolutely safe and quiet in operation.

Natural Gas is the clean fuel to use. It burns with 100% combustion. Residue or deposits are unknown with Natural Gas heat. This means clean chimney flues and chimneys, clean radiators, clean gas valves, clean gas pipes.

Why not plan now to know real winter comfort by having Natural Gas heating installed in your home? There is a type and size appliance that meets every individual home need, and at a price every home can afford. Get the facts for your home today.

Fine Birthday Cake For the Jadavskoyas

Carmel can probably lay claim to having had an "est" birthday cake. Californians are often accused of always having the largest, or smallest, or greatest of every desirable article.

Monday was the first anniversary of the establishment of the Russian Tea Shop by Colonel and Mrs. Ilya Jadavskoy and knowing this, several friends gathered in for a dinner and brought along a cake, decorated with a candle. And what a cake! Fully one inch in diameter and almost as high, it stood in its majestic beauty on a large 20-inch platter. The cake had not been cut Tuesday evening and Gene Watson and Floyd Weer were much disappointed in not receiving a slice.

The Jadavskoyas started their gift shop after having been here for four months, conducting a tea garden in the court and they and their friends are highly pleased with the growth of their venture.

May they have many more happy birthdays and continue to be surrounded by friends.

Carmel Valley

James and Richard Zellerbach, of San Francisco were visitors at the Rancho Carmelo for a week previous to school opening in their home town.

Mrs. Joseph Ely from Philadelphia was a guest at the hospitable Carmelo Rancho over the weekend. There were many pleasant diversions for the guests among them being a moonlight ride on Saturday night. The guests in a body attended a calf-branding at the Cahoon ranch on the Jamesburg road.

Mrs. Tom Meadows has been ill for a short while but on Wednesday her condition was so critical that she was taken to the hospital. She was found to have pneumonia with heart complications.

Mrs. Andrew Stewart paid a flying visit to San Francisco to visit her uncle. She was gone from home only one night.

The death of Mr. Phillip McDonald marks the passing on one of the real old timers of Carmel Valley. His passing was a sudden one and has been a shock to his many friends. Mr. McDonald has lived in Carmel Valley for over 60 years. He leaves two sons, Robert and George Macdonald and three daughters, Mrs. E. H. Hatton of Carmel Valley, Mrs. Frank Briggs of the Panama Canal Zone and Miss Rhoda McDonald of Salinas. Perry McDonald is his nephew. The funeral services were held Tuesday morning at Freeman's Mortuary chapel. The pall bearers were Ed. Hatton, Louis Wolter, Dave Wolter Roy Meadows, J. A. Martin and Stanley Ollasin.

The regular meeting of the Home Department of the Farm Center was held in Carmel Valley on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. H. B. Schulte. This was a meeting held for election of officers. Mrs. H. B. Schulte having been chairman for 12 years refused office again. However no one was elected to fill her place. Mrs. J. H. Stewart was made vice chairman, Mrs. Roy Martin, secretary. The subject for consideration was new development in child care. Those present were, Mesdames, J. H. Stewart, Roy Martin, Louis Wolter, Andrew Stewart, La Rue, H. B. Schulte, B. H. Schulte, Joe Pryte, Misses Carmela Pedora, Virginia Lee Schulte.

S. V. Scarlett of Carmel Valley, accompanied by John Leslie, Sr. and John Leslie, Jr., of Pacific Grove has returned from a three day trip to the State Fair in Sacramento.

Truman Scarlett went to Sacramento with his father and friends but remained there as he is to attend the Junior College in that city.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. McCormick and son Donald, from San Francisco, were at Rancho Carmelo over the Labor Day holidays.

School has opened in Carmel Valley and the many pupils both for the local schools, Tulareito and Carmelo, as well as those attending Monterey High school were all keen to be on time, at least this one day of the year.

Miss Myrtle Meloni from the San Francisco Bay District was a guest at Rancho Carmelo over the holidays.

Wednesday the members of the 4-H club left Carmel Valley to go to Davis to the annual encampment held there. The members were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Schulte, Virginia Lee Schulte and Bernard Schulte. At this gathering there will be awarded to Jean Stewart and Bernard Schulte, senior caps. This means that these children have been members of the 4-H club for four years and that they are over 15 years of age. Jean Stewart has actually been a member for seven years and Bernard for eight but they had to reach the tremendous age of 15 before they were eligible. There are three others members of the local 4-H who have received caps, namely: Virginia Lee Schulte, Anne Elizabeth Martin and her brother, Jack Martin. The particular phase stressed by the announcement is "Owning Your Own Room." This subject will be the topic of the talks to be given by Jean Stewart and Virginia Lee Schulte. They will have to talk to the different groups presented at this gathering. Bernard Schulte is also to speak about a boy's room, furnishings, etc.

Peninsula NRA Set Forth Their Plans

The Monterey Peninsula Committee in charge of the N.R.A. issues this statement in order that local consumers and employers may understand what they must do to help the National Recovery administration's program.

The part of employers in this program is to stimulate industrial recovery by increased wages and shorter working hours. The part of the consumers is to support loyal employers by trading with those places displaying the Blue Eagle and to buy now.

In order to see that those employers who have signed up, comply with their agreements, the Peninsula Committee has been given power, by State Administrator George Creel, through County Administrator Russell Scott to enforce the provisions of the code. Complaints of non-compliance will be heard by a sub-committee of three members and these three will pass on all cases. Such hearings as may be necessary will be held by the full committee, and when necessary the sub-committee will render final judgement. Complaintants in Monterey, Pacific Grove and Carmel should first notify their local committees, in order that these may deal with the alleged violations and possibly settle the cases without recourse to the Peninsula Committee.

Beginning Thursday of this week the local committee of the three trading communities will hand out verification cards to all employers. This distribution will not be made through the mails, but by personal calls at places of business, in order that any information desired may be given. Following is a copy of the card which every employer will receive.

VERIFICATION
National Recovery Administration. Recovery Information Card. Note to Employers—Kindly fill out the following questions pertinent to recovery of employment and business:

1. Have you signed the President's reemployment agreement?
2. Number of full time employees as of August 1st, 1933.
3. Number of full time employees added since August 1st.
4. Amount of payroll increase since August 1st.
5. To what extent has your business increased?
6. Do you display Blue Eagle?
7. Remarks.

Firm name.
Address.
Signed by.

The purpose of these cards explains itself. The information given must be correct. It is expected that this canvas will be completed within a few days. The returns will be forwarded to the State Administrator.

A review of the work done up to date shows that nearly all the employers on the Monterey Peninsula are already signed up. There is no reason to doubt that the signatures will reach 100 per cent within a very short time. A considerable portion of these signers have now put on additional employees, at greatly increased cost to themselves. They are doing this as a patriotic duty, and with the firm assurance that the consumers will support them.

In this respect the committee wishes to remind the consumers that the time has now come for them to do their part.

Trade with the Blue Eagle now and buy now.

The success of the entire N.R.A. program depends upon the buyers. During the past week you have received your pledge cards. More than half of these cards have already come back signed. By writing his or her name on one of these cards, every one of the signers has agreed to co-operate with the National Recovery administration. If you intend to keep your word you will make your purchases at these places displaying the Blue Eagle and you will begin purchasing at once.

This is not asking anything unreasonable. Spend what you have for what you need when goods are cheap instead of waiting until the prices rise next month. Your mass buying will have a tremendous effect in hastening better times.

When he introduced this N.R.A. program in his address to the American people over the radio, President Roosevelt emphasized the point that its success depends upon the consumers. This statement is made to remind the people of the Monterey Peninsula of

Eastern Children Arrive Here For School Opening

The opening of the Douglas school for girls and the Douglas school for boys on Wednesday, September 20th, will bring back to the peninsula many families who spend their winters here while their children attend the schools.

Among them are Captain and Mrs. Henry Forrester, whose children, Jean, Sturtevant and Whitman Hobbs attend the schools, and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Fish, whose son, Stuyvesant, attends the boys' school.

Among those arriving from the southern part of the state are: Jean and Thomas Wilder, son and daughter of Mrs. Agnes Wilder of Santa Barbara; Sally Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. D. Warner of Beverly Hills; Peggy O'Melveny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald O'Melveny of Pasadena; and Mary Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams of Los Angeles.

This will be the sixth year that the schools have been in session. The faculty will be the same as last year, with the exception of Mr. Horace Peterson, who is now studying for a doctor's degree in history at Harvard.—Monterey Herald.

Holiday Guests at Hotel La Ribera

Among the Labor Day holiday guests at Hotel La Ribera were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Saunders, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Porter and daughter, Woodland; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Jarvis, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. David Burnett, San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cameron, Alameda; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Moffat, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leggett, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Van Dyke, Piedmont; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Hayes, Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gwerder, Ryde; Mr. and Mrs. E. Geary, Piedmont; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Barnett, San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Clarke, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. C. Eichen, Palo Alto; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gondie, Piedmont; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kegan, Piedmont; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Lloyd, Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Peterson, Napa; Mr. and Mrs. George Stimmel, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. C. Sudler, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. B. Wood, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wood, Piedmont; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Williams, Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gregory, San Francisco; Mrs. E. Leonard and party, Pasadena.

what the President expects from them by way of co-operation. It is simple, easily remembered.

Trade with the Blue Eagle and buy now.

Carmel officers failed to send an immodestly dressed visitor home Monday. Six feet tall he was, and wore the most abbreviated of linen shorts with little linen shirt to match, and not even anklets on his little feet.

Carmel now has a Home Owned Stores organization. Of course the majority acknowledge it is all right to trade with chain stores, if they are not competing in their line.

While Miss Fanny Johnson spends much time in the patio at her home, recuperating from an illness, she makes friends with the wild life about her. Imagine her thrill recently as she was eating her lunch, when a saucy bluebird came and perched near her, then got bolder and picked up a crumb. Miss Johnson then held a crumb in her hand and down hopped Mr. Bluebird to her shoe, then made his way in his own dignified manner to where he could take the morsel.

Radiana Pazmor In Return Concert

The success of her August 26 concert at the Denny-Watrous gallery warrants a return engagement so Radiana Pazmor mezzosoprano will be heard there next Saturday evening, September 9. Miss Pazmor plays her own accompaniment.

After spending her childhood with her distinguished musical family in San Francisco Miss Pazmor went to New York to study and then to Europe where she first attained recognition as a concert singer.
